

Antivirus Tip

Antivirus Tip

Always protect your computer by utilizing active, updated and adequate antivirus software.

This means that it must be.....

Always protect your computer by utilizing active, updated and adequate antivirus software. This means that it must be.....

-Active- running at all times, the program should be set to load automatically on system startup -Updated- the latest updates & definition files must have been downloaded and installed. -Adequate- you are using a version that offers appropriate protection for the applications you use.